American Baby's Baby Booty: Win a Tickety Toc Toys, DVD, and Book Package Sweepstakes

by Amanda Nesbot

Do your kids love Nick Jr.'s show Tickety Toc? My daughter does, and she added a Tallulah doll to her 2013 Christmas list right after opening all of her presents last year. The only problem is that there are no Tickety Toc products available in stores. Really. They don't exist.

According to Tickety Toc's website, lots of parents have been requesting Tommy and Tallulah toys and our wishes are finally being answered. Tickety Toc products will become available in stores this September, which leaves Santa enough time to do his job.

What news could be better than that? This week we're giving away a whole Tickety Toc product bundle to two lucky winners!

Leave a comment below, up to one a day, between now and September 4th for your chance to win a Tickety Toc prize pack that includes a Clockhouse Train Set, Talking Tommy Doll, Talking Tallulah Doll, Tickety Toc "Chime Time Adventures" DVD, Tickety Toc Floor Puzzle, Tickety Toc Matching Game, and a "Welcome to Tickety Town" Book. Each bundle is worth $118!

Here are the official rules. Goody Luck!
